

SPECIAL EDUCATION TASKFORCE

Advocates in Special Education

Panel Moderator:

Steve Oill, Parent Advocate,
Home and Community Based Services Waiver
Parsons Child and Family Center

Advocacy plays a critical role in the development of a meaningful Individualized Education Program. At this presentation you will hear from a panel of lay-advocates on tips for using special education procedures to develop meaningful programming for their clients. This panel will discuss strategies used during Committee on Special Education meetings, Superintendent Hearings, Mediation, Due Process and State Education Complaints.
