

SPECIAL EDUCATION TASKFORCE

Assistive Technology in Reading and Writing

Presented By:

Lee-Ann Mertzlufft, M.S. Special Education, LATS
Director, Options With Learning, LLC

This presentation will discuss the use of assistive technology to enhance the education of students with disabilities -particularly students with reading and writing disabilities. Based on an appropriate assistive technology evaluation, a student's learning and communication can be significantly enhanced through the use of assistive technology. Attendees will learn about Bookshare, word prediction programs, text to speech programs and speech to text programs.
