Think Tank

“But She Never Says Anything”: Strengthening the Role of the Parent Member at CSE Meetings

The Parent Member” (a person different than the parent) is a required participant at CSE meetings. This Think Tank will focus on the role of the Parent Member at CSE meetings and discuss ways to assist Parent Members to more actively support parents at CSE meetings. We will discuss what works and what doesn't as well as brainstorm ways to inform and support Parent Members in this critical role.

The Think Tank is an opportunity for advocates, school personnel and parents to brainstorm about systemic issues that our children face in special education.
